The COPE Center, in partnership with the Montclair Community Intervention Alliance, is offering parenting workshops. The program is designed to offer parents an opportunity obtain new ideas that will help them to help their children. The workshops will offer a wide range of tips on how to partner with teachers to enhance the child's performance, create an environment in which kids want to spend time at home, improve communication and build a relationship with older children. Extensive research has demonstrated that building these kinds of solid foundations with children is an essential part of helping kids make the right decisions when they encounter alcohol, tobacco and drugs. Some workshops are offered as a set over consecutive weekends; we encourage you to attend both. Others are a single Saturday offering.

Registration can be done by calling (973)783-6655 any weekday between 9AM and 5PM. One of the workshop facilitators will contact attendees to confirm registration and answer any questions.

Special points of interest:

- Workshops provided for a $5.00 donation, but no one will be turned away if they cannot make a contribution.
- Easy phone registration
- Pre-registration is required—sign up for all the ones you are interested in with one phone call!

Workshop Schedule:

April 28—Leave Me Alone! PART ONE: Improving Communication and setting boundaries with your child (10:30AM—Noon)

May 5—Leave Me Alone! PART TWO: Improving Communication and setting boundaries with your child (10:30AM—Noon)

This two-part workshop addresses how to "pick your spot," state it clearly, and stick to it! Appropriate for those parenting children ages 5-21.

May 12— On the Same Page: Parenting as a team (10:30AM—Noon)

This workshop will help you to improve your communication as a parenting team as well as to cope with situations where your co-parent is absent or refuses involvement. Attendance of all parenting figures is strongly encouraged.
