

HELP FOR NEW JERSEY MILITARY FAMILIES!

FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR MILITARY FAMILIES IN NEED

United Way of Northern New Jersey is working with a network of health and human service partners and military entities to increase community support for military families who are managing the “home front” while their loved ones are on the front lines serving their country.

UNITED WAY FRONT LINE FUND IS HERE TO HELP

The United Way Front Line Fund was established to ensure we can meet the growing needs of our local military families before, during, and after deployment.

YOU MAY QUALIFY*

If you are a member of a military family, an active duty serviceman or woman, or a post 9/11 veteran you may qualify for assistance. The fund is ready to help with:

- Child care and respite services
- Emergency home repairs
- Housing costs and utility assistance
- Mental health services
- Transportation costs and emergency car repairs
- Medical costs
- And more

* Fund is open to individuals living, working, or based in Morris, North Essex, Somerset, Sussex, or Warren County.

GET HELP TODAY

Family Service of Morris County is handling the distribution of the United Way Front Line Fund to qualifying individuals. To learn more or to apply for assistance, please contact Sylvia Lippe:

- Email: SLippe@fsmc.org
- Phone: 973.538.5260

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

LIVE UNITED